
1 NO POVERTY
SDG 1
NO POVERTY
SDG 1: TANPA KEMISKINAN
1 SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE
2 COMMUNITY EMPOWERMENT
3 EDUCATION & SKILLS
4 HEALTH & WELLBEING
5 THE ULTIMKTE GOAL

UKKPK UNP Hosts “BERLIAN” Social Service Program to Share Kindness During Ramadhan

The Campus Communication and Broadcasting Activity Unit (UKKPK) of Universitas Negeri Padang (UNP) organized the BERLIAN (Sharing Kindness During Ramadhan) social service program at the Ulul Azmi Orphanage in Padang. Through donations, educational activities, and community engagement with orphaned children, the initiative promoted social responsibility, strengthened the spirit of giving, and encouraged students to actively contribute to community service.

Ramadhan BlessingAction (AKBAR) by the Student Association of the Department of Social and Political Sciences, Facultyof Social Sciences, UNP

The Student Association of the Department of Social and Political Sciences, Faculty of SocialSciences at Universitas Negeri Padang organized the Ramadhan Blessing Action(AKBAR) in Padangby holding an iftar gathering with children from Al Falah Orphanagein Parupuk Tabiang.The activity includedan Islamic sermon, interactive games, and the distribution of food packages and financial assistance as a form of students' social care for the community. Through this sharinginitiative, students are encouraged to build empathy, solidarity, and provide support to orphanage children, showing its relevance to improving community welfare and supporting those in need.

A MillionSmiles and Inspiration: UPKK UNP Shares Happiness at Belaian Kasih Social Care Home

The Career and Entrepreneurship Development Unit of Universitas Negeri Padang organized the UPKK Berbagi programat Belaian Kasih Social Care Home in Padang topromote social awareness and provide support for children with disabilities through fundraising and sharing activities. Held during the month of Ramadan, the initiative involved students in collecting donations and distributing takjil around the university area, strengthening humanitarian values and community solidarity. This activity reflects efforts to improve community welfare and support vulnerable groups through social care initiatives.

UNP Leads the West SumatraRamadhan Safari Teamto Baiturrahman Mosque,Datar Mansiang Village, Talawi, Sawahlunto City

Universitas Negeri Padang led the West Sumatra Provincial Government's Ramadhan Safari Team to Baiturrahman Mosque in Datar MansiangVillage, Talawi, Sawahlunto, aiming to strengthen community relations while sharingupdates on the development of the UNP Sawahlunto Campus, which is expected toimprove human resourcequality and supportthe local economy. The visit also includedmeetings with local government leaders, a religious lecture,and the handoverof financial assistance for mosquedevelopment along with Qur'ans from the provincial government, showing its relevance to improving community welfare and strengthening localeconomic development.

UNP LaunchesSmartCinnamon Website: Driving Digitalisationof Cinnamon SMEs Towards the Global Market

Universitas NegeriPadang together with the ManiezzzTeam launched the SmartCinnamon website in Agam Regency as a digital innovation to help cinnamon SMEs in West Sumatra reach the global market. The initiative, part of the Innovillage 2024 program initiatedby PT Telkom Indonesia and Telkom University, provides featuressuch as a marketplace, digital business training, and international marketingnetworks integrated with a circular economy approach. This activitysupports local communities, farmer groups, and SMEs in improving their business capacity and income, showing its relevance to poverty reduction through strengthening local economic opportunities and SME digitalisation.

The Management of Darmawanita Persatuan UNP Distributes Pre-Fasting Meals to the Community

The Management of Darmawanita Persatuan at Universitas Negeri Padang distributed pre-fasting meal packages to the community around the Air Tawar Campus in Padang as part of a social care initiative during the month of Ramadan. Through donations collected from members, management, and university leaders, around300 pabukoan packageswere prepared for congregants of the Al-Azhar Grand Mosque and nearby residents on Jalan Hamka.This activity reflectssocial solidarity and community support that benefits local residents and contributes to improving the welfare of those in need.

UNP AffirmsSupport for the Ministry of Social Affairs' Sekolah Rakyat Program

Universitas Negeri Padang (UNP) reaffirmed its commitment to supporting the Ministry of Social Affairs'Sekolah Rakyat (People'sSchool) program by providing educational resources, teaching personnel, and campus facilities. The initiative aims to expand access to quality education for underprivileged children while strengthening collaboration between higher education institutions and the government to reduce educational inequality and poverty.