

SDG 6
CLEAN WATER AND SANITATION

City Government SupportsRiver Dredging Efforts in the UNP Area

The Padang City Government, through its Public Works and Spatial Planning Office(PUPR), carried out dredging activities along the river withinthe Universitas NegeriPadang (UNP) area to reduce sedimentation, minimize flood risks,and improve water quality. This collaborative initiative reflects a shared commitment to environmental conservation, sustainable water management, and creating a safer and healthier campusand surrounding community.

Swift Response:UNP Begins Distributing BTN Donation Aid

Universitas Negeri Padang (UNP) promptly distributed humanitarian aid donated by Bank Tabungan Negara (BTN) to communities affectedby floods and flash floodsin Padang. The assistance focusedon providing basic necessities and access to clean water, reflecting the strong collaboration between UNP and BTN in supportingdisaster recovery and strengthening humanitarian efforts for affected communities.

West Sumatra Faces Clean Water Emergency, UNP Highlights Smart Strategies for Family Health

Universitas Negeri Padang (UNP) highlighted the importance of safe water management and clean, healthyliving practices (PHBS)to protect family health during the clean water emergency in West Sumatra. Through community education, UNP promoted safe water use, improved sanitation, and environmental disease prevention measures to help communities maintain their health and resilience during the crisis.

UNS Delivers Water Purification Equipmentand Psychosocial Supportto Disaster ResponsePost at UNP

Universitas Sebelas Maret (UNS) provided water purification equipment and psychosocial support services to the disaster response post at Universitas NegeriPadang (UNP). The assistance aims to help affected communities access clean water while also supporting mental and emotional recoverythrough psychological care. This collaboration strengthens emergency response and post-disaster recovery efforts in West Sumatra.